To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of Faris Al-Helali and his application for citizenship. Faris is currently employed by Strategic Analysis, Inc. as a Human Terrain Analyst and is working on a program called the Human Terrain System.

This program is vital to the increased safety and security of U.S. Forces deployed in Iraq. Faris' desire to volunteer to join this program and utilize his expertise in Iraqi language and culture is most admirable and worthy of immediate consideration for expedited citizenship processing. His expressed desire to provide this assistance to the United States, as a small token of his appreciation toward a nation that took him in and provided an opportunity to lead a productive life, is both admirable and worth of emulation. His service with the U.S. Army on this program will be of lasting benefit to the nation as a whole.

I will be happy to discuss any of this further if desired.

Respectfully submitted,

Timothy J. Zinck

Dear Mr. Al-Helali:

I am writing in follow-up to our telephone conversation of this date during which I informed you that Refugee & Immigration Services of South Bend has closed as of June 30. Therefore, I will not be able to continue to work with you on your application for naturalization. I am enclosing a copy of my letter to the Chicago District Office withdrawing my G-28 for this case. I am also enclosing a copy of the pertinent portions of your case file for your records.

I called today to inquire as to the status of your case and was told it was still pending for the FBI name check. I expressed to them your frustration at this delay when you have passed security clearances for work with the U.S. Army in Iraq, and the agent said that is just the way the system works. He said the time is very variable because an FBI field agent has actually been appointed to investigate your case and the amount of time this takes is not predictable.

I also attempted to verify your address. They were unable to assist me with this, because I could not tell them your last address. I urge you to contact CIS at 800-375-5283 to be sure your address information is correct. This is essential to your case moving forward.

I understand you will be contacting another attorney to represent you. The information from your file may be helpful to him or her. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. I wish you success.

Yours truly,
